
1. Purpose and Intent

This Policy formally documents that Arcnine Research LLP (“Arcnine”, “we”, “us” or “our”) does not provide any form of advisory, recommendation, signal generation, execution, or investment decision-making services to third parties.

The objective of this Policy is to eliminate ambiguity regarding Arcnine’s business model and to prevent any misunderstanding, misrepresentation, or unauthorised reliance by external persons or entities.

2. No Investment Advisory Services

Arcnine does not, directly or indirectly, provide:

- Investment advice, opinions, or views on securities, derivatives, commodities, currencies, or any financial instruments
- Buy, sell, hold, or allocation recommendations
- Asset allocation guidance or portfolio construction advice
- Risk profiling, suitability assessments, or investment planning
- Personalised or general investment strategies for third parties

No communication issued by Arcnine shall be construed as “investment advice” within the meaning of applicable laws, including the SEBI (Investment Advisers) Regulations.

3. No Trading Signals or Recommendations

Arcnine does not generate, publish, distribute, sell, or otherwise provide:

- Trading signals
- Market calls
- Entry or exit levels
- Target prices or stop-loss levels
- Algorithmic alerts or strategy outputs
- Any form of actionable trading instructions

All analytics, indicators, and models developed by Arcnine are restricted exclusively to internal use.

4. No System Access or Technology Distribution

Arcnine does not:

- Provide access to proprietary trading platforms, models, or algorithms
 - License, lease, or sell trading software or methodologies
 - Offer APIs for trading or analysis
 - Permit mirror trading, copy trading, or social trading
 - Enable automated or semi-automated execution for third parties
-

5. No Trade Execution for Third Parties

Arcnine does not:

- Place or execute trades on behalf of third parties
 - Operate brokerage accounts for others
 - Act under discretionary mandates or powers of attorney
 - Perform order management or settlement functions for external accounts
-

6. No Fiduciary Relationship

No fiduciary, advisory, agency, or trust relationship exists or is created between Arcnine and any third party.

Arcnine owes no duty of care, suitability obligation, or best-interest obligation to any external person or entity.

7. No Reliance and Limitation of Liability

Any publicly accessible information:

- Is provided for informational or descriptive purposes only
- Must not be relied upon for investment or trading decisions
- Is provided without representation or warranty

Arcnine disclaims all liability arising from unauthorised reliance by third parties.

8. No Performance Marketing

Arcnine does not market performance, make return representations, or solicit funds based on past or hypothetical results.

9. Prohibition on Misrepresentation

Any unauthorised representation suggesting that Arcnine provides advisory, signal, execution, or capital-management services is false and not authorised.

10. Governing Law and Updates

This Policy is governed by Indian law and may be updated from time to time. Updates shall take effect upon publication.
